Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Years of Discretion The rays of a lingering afternoon sun shone from a clear Hudson river sky into Margaret Brinton s charming sitting-room and filled it with cheer and amber light. The room was a delightful one at any time, full of rare and beautiful things, with harmonious walls and comfortable divans. In many years it had taken from its mistress much of her daintiness and personality. Opening off from it was the hallway of the apartment - the building was one of those smart establishments of the upper Riverside Drive - and from this floor curving stairs ran up under a wide arch to the second landing where the bedrooms were. Halfway up a quaint bend formed a little resting spot with a wide and pillowed seat, - an ideal retreat for a confidence or a quiet chat. On the opposite side of the living-room rich, dark portieres dropped discreetly down, veiling a quaint little music room in which there was just room enough to hold Mrs. Brinton s grand piano and a chair or two.
