Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Patent Committee of the National Research Council, Vol. 20: Presented for the Committee The Patent Office is keeping secret and withholding from publication many inventions made since the beginning of the war and which are useful in war. After the war, it will be imperative that American inventors continuously improve American products and the manufacture of them and make basically new inventions to meet and keep ahead of the strenuous efforts which Germany and other nations will make to attain supremacy by these methods. Your Committee has, therefore, carefully investigated the Patent Office and the patent system, with a view to increasing their effectiveness, and, based on its investigation and the experience of its members, makes the following recommendations: The Committee has concluded to propose a program consisting of but four features, because it believes those features are of such fundamental importance that their enactment into law would strengthen the entire system and directly and indirectly establish it upon a new and much more advantageous footing before Congress and the public; and because with a single program, presenting comparatively little opportunity for difference of opinion as to the desirability of the changes proposed, there would be an unanimity of opinion in support of it which could not be obtained if the program were more extended. A Single Court of Patent Appeals The first proposal which your Committee recommends is the establishment of a single Court of Patent Appeals that will have jurisdiction of appeals in patent cases from all the United States District Courts throughout the country, in place of the nine independent Circuit Courts of Appeal in which appellate jurisdiction is...
