I wish I could write stories like this, stories that even if the genre isn t my reader s favorite, or is even on my reader s list of Don t like at all, that after reading just a short sample, my readers think Maybe, I need to rethink my position of these genre! Debbie Curto - blogger Most if not all writers get caught up in writing short stories. They are a great way to hone the craft of writing. George McVey is no exception, when he isn t writing westerns or fantasy Novels, or putting the words of a spiritual warfare booklet on the page, he often gets involved in a quick short story challenge or flash fiction contest. They are at times a welcome break. This booklet hold s fifteen of George s short stories and flash fiction entries. They range in genre from Christian Life to a couple of spooky thrillers. Some are very Christ centered some are just funny little ideas that made the page. A few have been featured on George s short story blog George s Shorts and a few have not. Even those that were on the blog have been spruced up a little or added to a lot. So if you re looking for a little light reading snack grab George s Shorts (just ignore his screams). No matter what kind of tale your looking for he s got one just for you. Want to know the truth about cats and dogs? Try That little bit of fluff. Wonder what would happen if ninja s had repulsive technology? Then Repulsed is the story for you. Need...
