Absolute, Tyrone Power as Sir Lucius O Trigger, and Mr. Abbot (an actor celebrated in his day) as Falkland; truly a striking distribution. A few of the farces out of the many were The Lottery Ticket, Sketches in India, The Mummy (so famous in Chambers Street), No Song No Supper, John Jones, Deaf as a Post, The Ladies Man, and a piece called Cupid, which had won renown in England through the acting of the famous John Reeve. Burton s growing popularity was substantially shown in the attendance at his regular benefits. They were always bumpers, and occasions of warm demonstrations of regard. He was always ready, too, with his sympathy and support where the claims of a professional brother were in question. William B. Wood, in his Personal Recollections of the Stage, to which work we are[.]
