Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Slavery the Bible Infidelity The Bible is the Word of God. This is the truth which runs a dividing line between infidels and christians. The infidel asserts that it is a cunningly devised fable. of human origin alone, intended to impose upon the credulity of the ignorant mass and only received by the intelligent for selfish reasons. The christian on the other hand contends that all scripture is given by inspiration of God, and was written by holy men of God, who spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and that consequently all are bound to believe its doctrines and to live in accordance with its precepts. The evidence in proof of the inspiration of the Bible is of two kinds, external and internal. The external evidence embraces the arguments derived from miracles. prophecy, and the success which has attended the propagation of Christianity. The internal evidence, to use the language of Bishop Horne, is derived from the sublime doctrines and the purity of the moral precepts revealed in the Scriptures - the harmony subsisting between every part, - their miraculous preservation - and the tendency of the whole to promote the present and eternal happiness of mankind, as evinced by the blessed effects which are invariably produced by a cordial reception and belief of the Bible - together with the peculiar advantages possessed by the Christian revelation over all other religions. It may be well to remark here that one of the above specifications (to it, the miraculous preservation of the Scriptures,) would more properly be included in the external evidences. A more concise definition of the internal evidence of Christianity...
