

Autism Services Across America: Road Maps for Improving State and National Education, Research, and Training Programs

By Peter Doehring. Foreword by Fred Volkmar

Paul H. Brookes Publishing Co., 2013. Softcover. Book Condition: New. What are the keys to effective autism programs-and how do they solve their biggest challenges and meet the needs of all children and families? Find out in this book, an in-depth roadmap of autism services, research, and policies that are strengthening outcomes for children across the country. With detailed reviews of 9 innovative state and national initiatives in public and private settings, this book gives researchers, administrators, and educators models they can use to help develop an efficient, cost-effective autism program-or expand their existing services. Leaders of these model programs give readers a complete overview of each initiative, covering factors such as structure, objective, population served, and staff roles and responsibilities. Readers will come away with invaluable insights on each program's key success factors, including . Clearly identifying viable funding sources . Improving screening and early identification of autism . Planning family- and person-centered activities that support each child's goals . Implementing positive behavior interventions and supports . Engaging caregivers in coordinating services for their child and advocating for change . Translating scientific breakthroughs into evidence-based services . Developing teacher training programs that build awareness and expertise . Conducting comprehensive,...
