Abhinav Publications, New Delhi. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. 60pp. Writings is not an airy fairy activity; it is firmly based on vital experience. Romen Basu's eight novels and three short story collections testify to his serious engagement with the stuff of life. The long years he spent at the United Nations have not only afforded him a keen insight into the intricacies of the instruments of Power, but also the mind of a humanity groping for light in the gathering darkness. In this, his first published volume of verse, Basu continues in a new genre the imaginative recreation of those fateful emotions and issues which are presented to each individual's life or death dilemmas. What the quintessential poet behind this seasoned novelist brings home to the reader of these poems is the stab of a personally realised truth. This is achieved through all those strategies which make up the art or craft of poetry. But, in the end, it is the tenderness affirmed for the small and the defenceless which makes them so valuable. Basu's is the kind of voice which regenerates feeling in the cooling heart.
