It is more than wonderful: it is so awful, that, were it not for the consolations which the Catholic religion confers, it would be overwhelming and appalling. What Catholic can realise, even in a faint measure, all that is involved in the fact that he, personally, is a Catholic, and not tremble at the thoughts on which he dwells? Take any one of us - the writer of these lines, or any one Catholic who reads them - and think for a few moments what that person is, and the spiritual condition in which he is at this moment existing. On every side he touches on the Infinite and the Eternal. Himself a mote in the sunbeam, a speck in the universe, his past, his present, and his future are all bound up in ineffable intimacy with the will and the glory of the everlasting God. From the most venial of his sins, with which he, the mere breath of his Creator, is permitted to insult the majesty of the Omnipotent, to the never-ending chant of praise with which he hopes to make the very heavens resound hereafter - all that he does, all that he thinks, all that he is, begins, is carried on, and is ended in incomprehensible connexion with the attributes of the Eternal. Oh, wonderful thought! mysterious, indescribable, unfathomable destiny! A few years ago this creature had no existence; he simply was not; and now, what is he? Think only upon...
